

SWARANJALI- II CELEBRATED AT DAVIM

Patriotism is a pious feeling of the mind – it's one thing that requires special mention and which we all should imbibe. And to instill this feeling in the youth of today DAVIM, again organized the singing competition SWARANJALI-II with two categories, Solo and Duet, on 3rd February 2018 in its Tarang auditorium where the students manifested their singing prowess with great patriotic fervor. DAVIM had taken up the initiative to organize this competition as it feels that youth today, are the staunchest critics as well as mad lovers of their country. The students participated with complete zeal and enthusiasm and the auditorium reverberated with the patriotic songs sung by the students where all got nostalgic of the sacrifices done by the freedom fighters and also sang songs in praise of the army protecting our borders. The Head of the Institute, Dr. Neelam Gulati encouraged the youth, by postulating that patriotism doesn't mean blindly following the conventional idea of loving your nation, it means that you own up, you take your responsibilities seriously and show your love by making the nation better in whatever way you can. Her speech was followed by the Prize Distribution Ceremony where in Solo song category, Bhanu Siwach from B.B.A (General) and Arshdeep Kaur from B.B.E bagged the first Prize, followed by Krishan Sharma from B.B.A (C.A.M) as first runner up and Vaibhav Sharma from B.B.A (General) and Gunjan from M.C.A as Second runner ups. In duet category, Arshdeep Kaur and S. Subhashiri from B.B.E department came first. The celebrations culminated with the singing of National Anthem.

