

programme. The programme emphasized on Leadership Skills, its attributes, Mantras for Successful Leadership, Building Strong organizations, strategies and aspects of communication in Leadership with the help of various activities and by sharing experiences.

Interactive session Jointly by NIIT and DAVIM

A special interactive session was organized jointly by NIIT and DAVIM on Friday & Saturday, 7th and 8th February 2014 which was addressed by Mr. Nitish, Regional Head, NIIT and Ms. Seema, Centre Head NIIT and attended by 200 PG/UG student in Tarang Auditorium of DAV Institute of Management, Faridabad. This session highlighted the importance of IT in today's Business Scenario and discussed the current status of the Employability in the corporate world. The emphasis was majorly on enhancing employability, the existing career opportunities in IT, Role of digitalization and IT in Marketing and other management areas, significance of IT aptitude and its assessment and finally awareness about the NIIT's NIT Aptitude Test 2014.

This was followed by a 1.30 hr. NITAT 2014 on 13th February where 130 UG students appeared to test their IT skills.

Session on Leadership and Failures

In the pace of fast changing environment, it is the duty of an educational Institute to guide the students towards the path of success. DAVIM Training & Placement cell invited Mr. Kuldeep Chaudhary Chief Organiser of NGO-Vidyarthi. He defined ways to imbibe leadership qualities in oneself and also how to convert defeat into victory.

Workshop on Financial Markets

A Workshop on Financial Markets was organised by DAVIM. The resource person for the day was Mr. Varun Aggarwal (CFA), MD Profit Idea. DAVIM Faculty and Students of MBA, BBA (3rd year), BCAM (3rd Year) and Professional Courses (ICWA, CA, CS) participated in the programme. Mr. Varun shared Insights of Financial Markets and Practical Exposure to Share Trading.

Programme on Happiness Hours

A Programme on Happiness Hours was organised by DAVIM in activity hall on 1st March 2014. The Resource person of the day was Mr. Anil Gambhir. He is working as a senior manager in an Automobile Company. He is also a trained teacher and area co-ordinator of Faridabad to the renowned organization called Art of Living.

The programme commenced with the Lighting of the Holy Lamp in presence of Mr. Anil Gambhir, Ms. Simmi Gambhir, Dr. Neelam Gulati and the faculty participants (teaching and non-teaching both). It was followed by a formal welcome of the Speaker. The Programme was conducted as an interactive session by Mr. Anil Gambhir, focusing mainly on the mantras to stay happy. The programme emphasized on awareness about art of living, meditation through breathing and emphasis on Sudarshan Kriya.

Career Development Programme

HP organised a window demo in DAVIM on 30th Oct' 2013 and told the students and faculty about how to use window 8.1 latest version of window for help in career development to the